EDITORIAL

Dear students, dear staff,

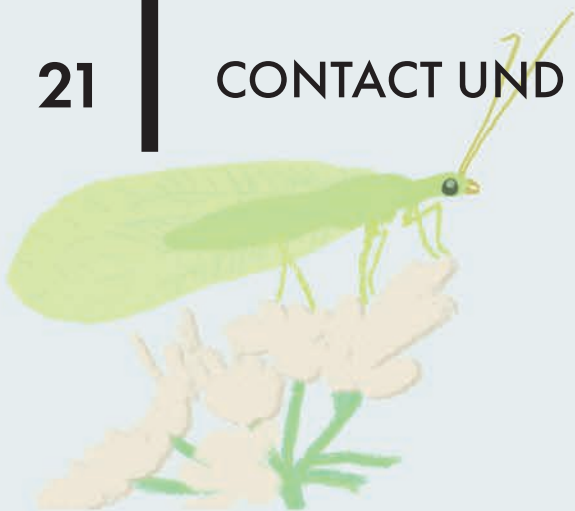

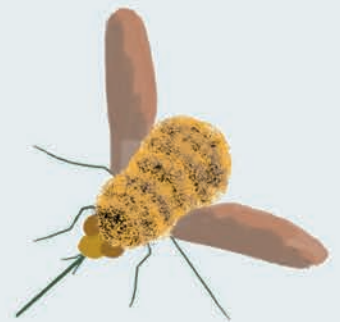

It's buzzing and humming all around us. We enjoy the sea of blossoms surrounding us, but what exactly is blooming and who is actually chirping us awake in the morning? Until the end of June, you can take part in the ICA Biodiversity Challenge, various Science Walks may let you dive deeper into our species-rich animal and plant world, just like us. But networking and career events are also very important this month. Two top events, the Future Symposium and the career fair Meet, will take place at the university in June.

We are sure that you will find something for you in the wide range of events, but we will definitely see you at the boat party!

ZUKUNFTSSYMPOSIUM

WHAT IS THE ZUKUNFTSSYMPOSIUM?

The Symposium in the Future Year 2023 is a project by students for students at Geisenheim University. The goals of the symposium are to create a future-oriented and practice-oriented interaction between students, companies, personalities and the university itself. The event is aimed at students from Bachelor and Master programmes, as well as speakers and companies.

The focus is on wine business, viticulture, logistics and beverage technology. A promising network will be established through workshops, case studies and networking events. Students have the opportunity to apply with their CVs, which will then be forwarded to the participating companies. The companies can invite selected students to exclusive programme points.

The Zukunftssymposium will take place on 02 and 03 June 2023. The opening ceremony and the afternoon event on 02 June are free to attend, all other programme items are exclusive.

SCIENCE WALKS

As part of the #ICAbiodiversitychallenge, we cordially invite you to the Biodiversity Science Walks. From 22 May to 30 June, there will be numerous exciting excursions around the topic of biodiversity on our campus. From insects, birds, and herbs to established plantings - we are sure there will be something for everyone to get to know our campus from a whole new perspective.

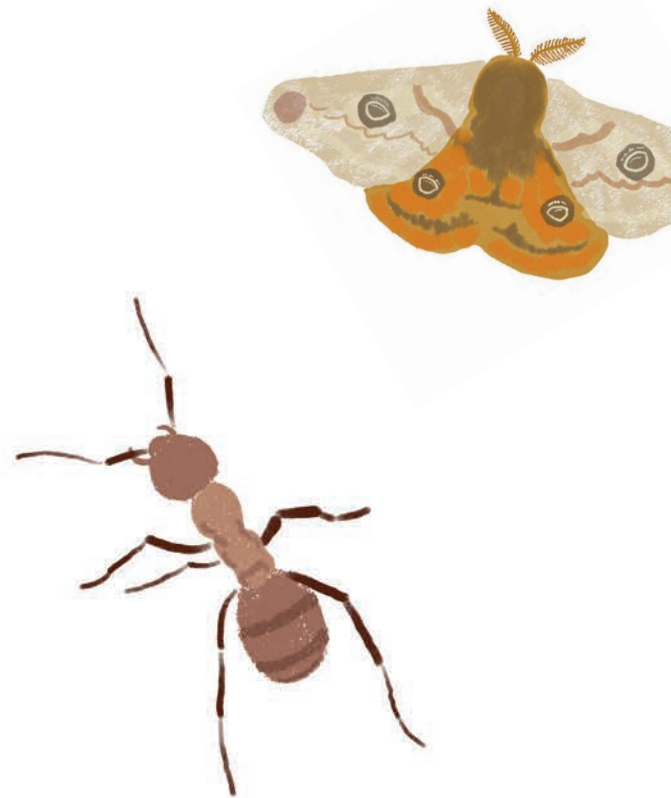

The following exciting excursions are still waiting for you in June:

14.06. at 10:30, Altes Weinfass: INSECT EXCURSION

On this excursion we will record the insect population in different areas of the university grounds (e.g. parks and vineyards) together with simple tools, so that you will be able to contribute further observations on your own during the remaining days of the BioBlitz.

22.06. at 14:00, Monrepos: PLANT DIVERSITY IN THE UNIVERSITY PARK

How can native plants also be promoted in an urban context? The guided tour, which takes place as part of the ICA BioBlitz 2023, focuses on native plants in the university park area.

GREEN OFFICE

Let's GO- News from the Green Office

Everything is new in June: Starting this month, you will find regular information about our projects and events here. Together we will look into the past and the future, always with a focus on sustainable issues and actions at our university.

The big question is: Who are we anyway?

We are now a team of seven, consisting of four university employees and three student assistants. Tabea Dietrich, Vanessa Mark, Georg Ardisson-Krauss and Charlotte Rafalski work together with Jule Volk, Katharina Koch and Jule Schlimmer

The second question that arises is: what are we doing at all?

From energy management, events and workshops, waste management, campus design to the networking of all stakeholders at our university - in short: we do sustainability. Our goal is to live sustainability. We want to strengthen and improve old structures, create new ones and transform our university into a place where sustainability is lived at all levels. With our projects and activities, we offer opportunities in which each and every one of us can get involved. Because sustainability is the chance to have a say in what kind of future and university we want to live in - already now!

We are very much looking forward to the future tasks, successes and hurdles that lie ahead of us.

Of course, we depend on your help, ideas, food for thought and criticism, because only together can we shape the university of the future. So simply write us an email at nachhaltigkeitsbuero@hs-gm.de or drop by our „NachhalTisch“, the round table for sustainability, every Wednesday between 12:00 and 14:00 in the refectory.
